New Official Workers (NOW) Forum:

The Christian and Missionary Alliance requires all newly licensed workers to attend this orientation so they can become better acquainted with the Alliance.

To make it even easier to attend, the forum happens the day before the District Conference and is provided at no cost to you. Your Sunday night lodging (reimbursed by the District after you have completed the forum), Monday breakfast and lunch, are sponsored by the District. Please be sure to register with the hotel for October 17th!
