

Youth Worker
Queens Christian Alliance Church, Flushing, NY
Job Description
contact davidsmith@qcac.org

Purpose & Vision

The purpose of QCAC is Believe. Belong. Become. Bless.

The purpose of the Youth Worker is to lead a youth and young adult ministry by making disciples, building community, empowering them in becoming like Christ, and reaching the unreached.

Responsibilities (This description is intentionally ministry oriented, not program oriented.)

- Design, develop, and lead an effective youth and young adult ministry integrated with the entire QCAC family. Bilingual preferred – Mandarin or Spanish.
- Seek – seek youth and young adults who are lost – reach nonbelievers for Christ – bring them to faith in Christ.
- Build – build up youth and young adult believers – help believers advance in their faith and the knowledge of God’s Word and the empowerment of the Spirit – raise up disciples who will make disciples.
- Equip – equip youth and young adult workers – train believers to be doers of the Word both inside and outside the church – coach, mentor, shepherd, and train workers.
- Send – send out youth and young adult leaders to serve and lead others – challenge believers to participate actively in God’s work worldwide – send out proven multipliers.
- Be present at the English worship services.

Relationships

- Work closely with, report to, and be accountable to the Executive Pastor of Ministries.
- Serve in tandem with the QCAC pastors, staff, leaders, and congregations.
- Be ultimately responsible to the QCAC governance authority.
- Attend staff meetings whenever possible.
- Submit a monthly report to the Governing Board/Elders and an annual report to the congregation.

Remuneration

- The Youth Worker is currently a part-time, paid position for 20 hours/week.
- First review in five months.

October 2022